Abutilon 'Souvenir de Bonn'

- Use: Combining an unusual bloom with an unusual color will create new interest in your container gardens and annual plantings. Abutilon (Flowering Maple) has blooms in the shape of a bell with the texture of a paper lantern. The blooming power of this unusual plant will create an oasis of color for the entire summer. Train up a trellis!
- Exposure/Soil: Prefers part sun to shade. Water regularly, when top 3 in. of soil is dry to start. Take care to keep soil moist. Hard to keep watered in full sun, but it is possible.
- Growth: Moderate-growing to 4-6 or higher ft. high, 1-2 ft. wide. However with regular light pruning can be kept much smaller.
- Hardiness: Zone 8/9-11 Annual/Tender Perennial, Houseplant, Must mulch around the plant and plant in a protected area from winter cold near the home. Or bring indoors in winter for year round.
- Foliage: Deciduous; Green leaves edged in creamy white look like maple leaves.
- Flower: orange veined Chinese lantern-like, 2" long flowers.
