

Dwarf Yedda Indian Hawthorne

Good foundation shrub
in front of the house!

Rhapiolepis umbellate 'Minor'

- Use: Dwarf evergreen shrub has low mounding rounded form with dense branches. Excellent for groupings.
- Exposure/Soil: Full-part sun. Water regularly, when top 3 in. of soil is dry. Use slow release fertilizer two times a year.
- Growth: Slow-growing to 3 to 4 ft. high and wide.
- Hardiness: 5-9, shrub
- Foliage: Small lustrous dark green foliage is clustered at the end of the branches.
- Flower: Small flowers are fragrant. White flowers in early spring.