

Felix Supreme Peony

Felix Supreme has a large, full double bloom opening a rich ruby red, but softening to rose in the sun. This plant produces flowers perfect for any vase.

Paeonia lactiflora 'Felix Supreme'

- Use: Gorgeous ruby red blooms are lightly scented and will be a focal point in the mixed border when the fully double blooms appear midseason. Peonies are classic garden plants that add a bit of nostalgia and charm to the garden. Their fragrant blooms and lush foliage have made them popular for years, and with the recent resurgence in breeding, they will continue to improve. Peonies are simple to grow and can be utilized in many ways, including mass plantings, specimens, or hedges. WE LOVE PEONIES, BUT THEY ARE NOT A BEGINNER PLANT! LOTS OF RESEARCH NEEDED AND SOIL PREP FOR SUCCESS!
- Exposure/Soil: Full sun–light shade shade (not deep shade); Water regularly, when top 3” of soil is dry. Use slow release fertilizer twice a year. Once established needs only occasional water.
- Growth: Grows 24 to 30 inches tall. May benefit from staking.
- Hardiness: Zone 3-8; Perennial
- Foliage: Deciduous. Lobed leaves may go dormant in hot summers.
- Flowers: Large, full double, rich ruby red blooms. Stem and flower meet all the requirements for a cut flower. It blooms in mid-season.
- Tips: Plant them shallow, mulch in the summer, take off the mulch in the winter, and they prefer a little afternoon shade. Cold winters will ensure lots of blossoms so plant them where they will get cold in the winter.
