Dwarf Cast Iron Plant

Aspidistra elatior 'Barr01' PP29562

- Use: A tough foliage plant for foundation plantings or interior use. Sturdy and easy to grow. This plant is as tough as its name! It will practically grow in the dark. Excellent for those difficult to fill areas in deep shade. Spreads by underground stems. Deer resistant. Super tough!
- Exposure/Soil: Part sun– shade; moist, well drained soil. Water regularly, when top 3 in. of soil is dry. Very drought tolerant once established.
- Growth: A tough foliage plant for foundation plantings or interior use. Sturdy and easy to grow, matures to 1 ½' tall by 1'-3' wide.
- Hardiness: Zone 6 -9 Shrub, also a Houseplant
- Foliage: Evergreen. Dark-green leaves emerge from the ground that are 4-5" wide.
- Flower: Insignificant brownish-purple flowers in spring.

So tough, some say it is the only plant that will live in a closet for a month and come out alive!
