

Dwarf Aucuba

Aucuba japonica 'Nana'

- Use: Excellent accent for shady situations. This plant is as tough as its name!
 - Exposure/Soil: Part sun– shade; moist, well drained soil. Water regularly, when top 3” of soil is dry.
 - Growth: Slow-growing to 4 to 6 feet high, almost as wide.
 - Hardiness: 6 -9 Shrub
 - Foliage: Evergreen. Broad-leaved evergreen shrub valued for the showy dark green leaves. Bold upright stems.
 - Flower: Insignificant flowers.
- Deer resistance and shade tolerance!