

Gina Lollobrigida Rose

Bred by Meiland and named after the Italian actress, photojournalist, and sculptor, this rose has star quality with golden-yellow blooms and a very heady fragrance.

Rosa 'Meilivar'

- Use: Golden-yellow blooms and a heady fragrance give this Hybrid Tea rose its Star® quality. Large, abundant blooms on a strong, upright plant with dense, medium green foliage. An opulent choice for the garden.
- Exposure/Soil: Full to part sun. During the winter they prefer well-drained soils. Water regularly, when top 3 in. of soil is dry. For best success place on a drip (not sprinkler) irrigation
- Growth: Grows 4-5' tall and 2-3' wide.
- Hardiness: Zone 4-9; Shrub
- Foliage: Deciduous. Unsurpassed resistance to black spot leaf disease.
- Flower: Her incredible, full blooms feature over 100+ petals and average 4-5" in diameter. an excellent producer of cut flowers that will fill a room with a dreamy scent with just a few blooms. Highly recommended for a cut flower garden or farm.
