

Peace Rose

Peace steals the show. Her golden, primrose-yellow petals with soft, rose-pink shadings emit an intense scent. Own-root roses ensure this strong, continually blooming bush with large, rich-green, leathery foliage will be more winter hardy year after year and more disease resistant. Add Peace to your cut flower garden.

Rosa x 'Peace'

- Use: When the whole world was looking hopefully to the future, along came the rose to set standards for all other roses for the remainder of this century. Even non-rosarians know Peace by its huge opulent blossoms, its delicious blend of colors, its very large glossy green foliage, and its easy-to-grow plant.
- Exposure/Soil: Full to part sun(6+ hr). During the winter they prefer well-drained soils. Water regularly, when top 3 in. of soil is dry.
- Growth: Grows 4-6.5' tall and 3.5' wide.
- Hardiness: Zone 5-10; Shrub
- Foliage: Deciduous. Dark green foliage. Good disease resistance.
- Flower: Large, full lemony yellow edged pure pink flowers have 40-45 petals. Rich sunset tones, sweet fragrance.
