Top reasons to grow Double Play Blue Kazoo spirea:

- blue foliage and white flowers work with any home color, even strong orange or red brick
- colorful new growth keeps this plant interesting from spring through frost
- needs no special pruning or other maintenance to keep its good looks
- Use: Flowers, foliage, and easy care - Double Play® Blue Kazoo® spirea has it all! Your search for a colorful, versatile, easy to grow shrub for your landscape ends at Double Play Blue Kazoo spirea. Its cool blue foliage emerges in a range of shifting hues through the season: red, pink, purple, and green. In early summer, very large white flower clusters appear. Like other spirea, you can count on Double Play Blue Kazoo to look great while needing minimal care.
- Exposure/Soil: Full— part sun. Water regularly, when top 3 in. of soil is dry. Drought tolerant once established
- Growth: Fast growing to 2-3' tall and wide. It naturally takes on a nice, rounded habit without pruning. If you wish, you can give it a trim after the flowers fade, which will encourage even more colorful new growth.
- Hardiness: Zone 4 –8; Shrub
- Foliage: Deciduous. New growth emerges a cool blue with hints of purple, lime, and red, transitioning to a blue-green before blazing with outstanding red foliage in fall.
- Flower: Large, crisp white flowers shine in late spring/early summer.
